Section 3: Loan details

3.1 Loan amount See fact sheet for minimum and maximum amounts and percentages.

How much would you like to initially drawdown? We recommend you only drawdown the amount that you need.

3.2 Cash reserve facility

A cash reserve facility enables you to make future draw downs on your loan to assist in funding associated expenses while in a retirement village (including fees, service charges, or day-to-day living expenses).

You are not required to draw on your cash reserve facility, and you will not be charged anything unless you decide to draw on this facility.

Do you want to set up a cash reserve facility that will allow you to apply for further funds in the future?

Yes No

3.3 Loan purpose

The purpose of this Loan is:

- (a) (in the case of the initial advance) to fund or assist in funding the payment due to acquire an occupation right in a retirement village, and in addition clearing any existing debt owing on the property; and/or
 - (b) (if you have a cash reserve facility) to fund or assist in funding associated expenses while in a retirement village (including fees, service charges, or day-to-day living expenses), while giving you some time to arrange the sale of the property.

3.4 Interest rate

The interest rate is variable and will change from time to time. Interest is calculated on the outstanding balance and added monthly to your loan. Note that the current interest rate is set out in our fact sheet and on our website.

Section 4: Your understanding

Have you (and each other nominated borrower) received and read the Heartland Village Access loan brochure and fact sheet? Yes No

Do you (and each other nominated borrower) understand the initial setup costs, further draw down fees and mortgage discharge fee? Yes No

See fact sheet for details.

Loan considerations

I have read and understood the information provided to me about a Heartland Village Access loan and confirm that I understand that: Yes No

- It is the nominated borrowers' responsibility to ensure council rates, home insurance premiums, and body corporate costs are kept up to date.
 - Any structural changes to the property must have Heartland's consent prior to commencement of the alterations.
 - The property may be rented or leased subject to our criteria being met (see the loan agreement for more information).
 - Drawing all or the majority of my entitlement at the outset or increasing the size of my loan may reduce my ability to apply for additional funds.
 - What compounding interest means and the effect it will have on my loan balance and the equity remaining in my home when sold.
 - I should and have considered other options such as downsizing, using other assets, taking out a regular mortgage, returning to work, or getting family assistance.
 - I understand that the loan balance will become due and payable within 3 years and that it could become due and payable even sooner in limited circumstances, including if 12 months have passed since the death of the last nominated borrower.
 - I understand and agree to see my solicitor to obtain independent legal advice, at my cost, when signing any loan offer.
 - I understand that if, before the loan is repaid in full, the right to occupy the retirement village we have funded you into is canceled or terminated, you must pay to us immediately any payments you receive from the retirement village operator in connection with that cancellation or termination.
 - That Heartland recommends independent financial advice is obtained.
 - That Heartland recommends speaking with your family about taking out a Heartland Village Access loan.
 - I understand that this application does not constitute an offer or acceptance for a loan. I understand that, if this application does not proceed for any reason, I will not receive a refund for any fees, expenses or costs already paid by me.
 - I have read and understood the following statement regarding financial advice. You are protected by responsible lending laws. Because of these protections, the recommendations given to you about Heartland loans are not regulated financial advice. This means that duties and requirements imposed on people who give financial advice do not apply to these recommendations. This includes a duty to comply with a code of conduct and a requirement to be licensed.
